

REFLECTIONS ON THE THEOLOGY OF THE BODY

A two-day seminar hosted by St. Elizabeth Seton Church in Carlsbad

Friday, September 25, 2009

7:00 PM – 9:00 PM

GOING BACK TO A SACRAMENTAL, CATHOLIC, HUMAN, LITURGICAL WORLDVIEW

Fr. Thomas J. Loya

Saturday, September 26, 2009

9:00 AM – 11:30 AM

WHO IS MAN FOR WOMAN AND WHO IS WOMAN FOR MAN?

with a male/female breakout session

Fr. Thomas J. Loya & Anastasia Northrop

Fr. Thomas J. Loya, currently the pastor of Annunciation of the Mother of God Byzantine Catholic Church in Homer Glen, IL, is the host of two radio programs, "Light of the East," heard across the United States on several Catholic radio networks including EWTN Radio, and "A Body of Truth," broadcast on catholicradiointernational.com. Fr. Loya has also served the Church in youth and young adult ministry and as an artist and design consultant, and is currently the Eastern Catholic spiritual advisor for TOBIA. He has directed many retreats and has been a guest speaker at conventions around the world, including World Youth Day 2002.

Anastasia Northrop, founder and president of TOBIA, the Theology of the Body International Alliance, has been promoting John Paul II's understanding of the human person worldwide for the last ten years with Our Father's Will Communications. Along with organizing events and writing articles, she has given talks and promoted study groups in the United States and around the world. She is the author of The Freedom of the Gift, a study guide for the text of the Theology of the Body.

FREE EVENT!

A free will offering will be taken up to help defray costs.

FOR MORE INFORMATION AND TO RSVP PLEASE CALL 760.438.2860 OR CONTACT SETONLIFE@GMAIL.COM