

BIOETHICS UNLOCKED

Information Vital to Your Life

Symposium to be held Saturday Nov. 5, 2011*

*6 Continuing education units available for nurses.

Bioethics: the study of controversial ethics brought about by advances in biology and medicine.

This Symposium will focus on some of the ethical issues in this highly complex field. Experts in their field will discuss these highly charged topics:

- ◆ Ever wonder what the term “brain death” really means?
- ◆ What is “Customized Conception”?
- ◆ Expose of women paid to have their eggs harvested.
- ◆ Breast cancer’s unspoken risk.
- ◆ Political & personal side of population control.
- ◆ Who decides who is to live and who is to die?
